PERSONNEL ANNOUNCEMENT

Constantin Wiesmann is new Director of Leasing at Unibail-Rodamco-Westfield Germany

New Director of Leasing at URW
Germany: Constantin Wiesmann (35)

On November 1, 2019 Constantin Wiesmann (35) will take over responsibility for the leasing department of Unibail-Rodamco-Westfield Germany. Most recently, Constantin Wiesmann was Global Director Purchasing at Gebr. Heinemann SE & Co. KG. From 2009 to 2019, he worked there in various management positions, including Managing Director Austria in Vienna, Director Retail Operations Asia Pacific in Singapore and Managing Director Australia in Sydney. Constantin Wiesmann studied Business Administration and Retail Management in Brühl and Barcelona.

Constantin Wiesmann takes over his new responsibilities from Götz Haßmann, who has been with the company since 2002 and held various management positions, most recently as Director of Leasing. Within the leasing team, Götz Hassmann takes responsibility for the management and development of selected key tenants in the portfolio as well as the implementation of special leasing projects.

“In the current challenging but also exciting retail market, agility is a key success factor for us. For this reason, we continuously optimize our working methods as well as the way we develop new partnerships and concepts with retailers and brands,” says Andreas Hohlmann, Managing Director Germany at Unibail-Rodamco-Westfield. “With Constantin Wiesmann, we won an internationally experienced expert for this task who has established his reputation in operative business as well as on the management level in retail business. We are convinced that in the new constellation we are excellently positioned to meet our own requirements in agile leasing and thus to successfully develop our leasing activities in the future.”
